Sixth Annual Conference of the Illinois Healthcare Ethics Committee Forum

Friday June 19, 2009
8:00 am – 4:30 pm

Public Affairs Center, University of Illinois at Springfield
One University Plaza, Springfield, IL. 62703
First Floor Conference Center Room C/D

Conference Theme: Ethics Committee Networks and Progress

Conference Purpose: The purpose of this one day conference is to provide education and support to members of healthcare institutional Ethics Committees. The anticipated impact to patient care includes improved skill with the assessment and evaluation of Ethics Committee membership, work, and training, and increase awareness of networking among institutions, especially in rural healthcare settings.

Who should attend? Nurses, physicians, social workers, chaplains, ethicists, administrators, teachers, and other providers who are members of healthcare ethics committees, or are interested in learning more about Ethics Committee work.

Keynote Speaker:

Pam Dalinis, co-editor of the new book "Ethical Issues in Rural Health Care"
